

Salt Lake County Library Services' Homeward Bound Books program is available to county residents who are homebound and cannot visit any of the library locations in person.

To determine eligibility please leave a message for the Homeward Bound Coordinator at 801-468-3700.

More information on back.

Homeward Bound Book participants can request a variety of materials, including books, large print books, audiobooks, music, movies and more. eBooks and eAudiobooks are also available on our website.

Librarians are available to assist with reading recommendations.

Call 801-468-3700 to contact the Homeward Bound Coordinator.
