Salt Lake County Library is committed to making a positive difference in the lives of our community by inspiring imagination, satisfying curiosity and providing a great place for everyone to visit.

"Thinking about our Chinese New Year Celebration makes me cry tears of joy—to know that almost 2,000 people from our community came out to learn about a different culture, partly mine and to share their excitement with us."

—Salt Lake County Library Librarian

Founded in 1939, Salt Lake County Library offers 18 neighborhood library branches, two reading rooms, services within two adult detention centers and a large event center. In 2018, the County Library connected with over 3.3 million individuals who visited one or more of our branches and/or the Library's Viridian Event Center, and nearly 4 million people visited our website. The County Library has just under 2 million diverse materials available for checkout and the materials were checked out 13.2 million times; of these, 182,661 were checked out by individuals receiving library services in Salt Lake County adult detention facilities. The community's interest in the collection, resources, programs, and social connectedness that the County Library provides is evidenced by the more than 38,200 applications for a new County Library card last year.

"Because books are a gateway to a place entirely my own. Without the Salt Lake (County) Library I would persist a sentence of boredom, however with you I am free!"

—Inmate at Salt Lake County Adult Detention Center

Strategic Priorities

- Early and lifelong learning, as well as equal access for all
- Digital inclusion and materials available in various formats
- Efficiently designed branches as welcoming community centers

"My 14-year-old is quite shy, but the Harry Potter theme allowed her to step out of her comfort zone and interact with others in a comfortable environment."

—Parent of O.W.L. Camp student

In addition to being an integral part of our communities, community members have made employment with Salt Lake County Library an essential and positive part of their lives, rating us a Top Workplace for the last five years.
