How to Play Dungeons & Dragons

This is a four-part series designed to help beginners get started and learn how to play the world's greatest role-playing game. We'll go over everything you need (and don't need) to play, including how to create a character, read a character sheet, be Dungeon Master, and what tools are available to help you play online.

Intro to D&D, Tuesday, September 22,
6–8 pm

Character Creation, Tuesday,
September 29, 6–7 pm

How to DM, Tuesday, October 6, 6–7 pm

Playing D&D Online, Tuesday, October 13,

Registration is required. Search "Dungeons and Dragons" in our online calendar thecountylibrary.org/calendar

Teen Lounge

Every Tuesday and Thursday after school, hang out and geek out on the County Library's Discord server. Talk to your friends and make new ones. Registration with an email address is required to be invited to the server.
