Challenge 1: Connect. Interview your grandparents, a family member, or a friend over the phone. Ask them about their life when they were your age.

Challenge 2: Learn. Use your smarts to complete a Digital Escape Room or complete the County Library’s digital scavenger hunt.

Challenge 3: Play. Get outside and feed the birds! If you don’t have birdseed, try freshly cut fruit or oats. Remember—don’t feed ducks bread!

Challenge 5: Create. This is a moment of history. Chronicle your daily life and experiences. Whatever form and whatever length that takes: make a gratitude journal, a blog, a film, a poem, a six-word story, a picture, a sequence, a zine, or a comic. Check out Creativebug for journaling prompts.

Challenge 6: Connect. Make kindness postcards. Leave them on your neighbors’ or friends’ doorsteps or send them in the mail. Or just use sidewalk chalk to write positive messages around your neighborhood or local park.

Challenge 7: Learn. Take a self-guided tour of one of these museums, national parks, or collections.

Challenge 8: Play. Play thousands of classic arcade and computer games directly in your browser at Internet Archive - Internet Arcade. You can even connect with others and stream on Twitch.

Challenge 9: Read. Watch one of our booktalks on The County Library’s Facebook page and read one of the selections! Or attend one of our Live Reader’s Advisory sessions and ask for a recommendation.
Challenge 10: Create. Make something you’ve never made before, whether that’s a new recipe, a blanket fort, a Rube Goldberg machine, a dance routine, or poem.

Challenge 11: Connect. Set up a virtual movie night with your friends or extended family. Try the free Netflix Party program, vote on what to watch, and chat while you view.

Challenge 12: Learn. Attempt to live a day in your life with your non-dominant hand, from writing to brushing your teeth. Prepare to be frustrated.

Challenge 13: Play. Go for a walk in your neighborhood. Practice yoga outside. Bike, dance, or kick a ball around with a family member. Remember to maintain a six-foot distance from others.

Challenge 14: Read. Read a new genre for you or listen to an audiobook. Better yet, ask a family member or friend what their favorite book is and see if you can borrow it as an eBook or eAudiobook through the County Library!

Challenge 15: Create. Visit washyourlyrics.com and turn your favorite song into a 20-second handwashing tune.
